How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called “average daily balance (including new purchases).” See your Credit Card Agreement for more details.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your Credit Card Agreement.

Important Information About Procedures For Opening A New Account: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means to you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. The information that is being requested and observed is for compliance with the requirements of Section 326 of the USA PATRIOT Act related to implementing customer identification and verification requirements.

Variable Rate Information: Unless an Introductory APR is in effect, the Purchase APR and Balance Transfer APR is determined by adding 4.99% - 14.99% to the U.S. Prime Rate. The U.S. Prime Rate is subject to change monthly on the first day of each month and is the U.S. Prime Rate published in the "Money Rates" section of The Wall Street Journal on the last business day of the month. An increase or decrease in the U.S. Prime Rate will cause a corresponding increase or decrease in the variable rate on the first day of your billing cycle that ends on or after the date of the change. Your actual APRs will be determined based upon your creditworthiness and will be provided to you in writing.

The rate on this card will not exceed Prime + 19.99%, which is currently 24.74%.

The rate information contained in this First Security Bank disclosure is accurate as of March 2018, and is subject to change thereafter. To find out what may have changed, visit our website at www.ourbank.com.

CREDIT CARD AGREEMENT AND DISCLOSURE STATEMENT FOR YOUR VISA BUSINESS ACCOUNT

Notice: Read and retain this copy of your Agreement and Truth in Lending Disclosure for future reference.

TERMS USED IN THIS AGREEMENT: This Agreement and Disclosure Statement (“Agreement”) covers your VISA[®] BUSINESS Account (“Account”) shown above. In this Agreement, the words “you” and “your” mean any person who signs this Agreement or uses the Card. “We” “our” and “us” mean the financial institution named above. The “Card” means any credit card issued to you or those designated by you under the terms of this Agreement. “Use of the Card” means any procedure used by you, or someone authorized by you, to make a purchase or an advance whether or not the purchase or advance is evidenced by a signed written document. “Unauthorized use” means the use of your Card by a person, other than you, who does not have actual, implied, or apparent authority for such use, and from which you receive no benefit. In this Agreement, any plural terms shall be deemed singular and any singular terms shall be deemed plural when context and construction so require.

EXTENSION OF CREDIT: If your application is approved, we may, at our discretion, establish an Account in your name and cause one or more Cards to be issued to you or those designated by you. In such event, you authorize us to pay for your Account all items reflecting credit purchases, balance transfers, and cash advances obtained through use of the Card.

JOINT APPLICANT LIABILITY: If this Agreement is executed by more than one person, each of you shall be jointly and individually liable to us for all charges made to the Account, including applicable fees. In addition, you agree that each of you designates the other as agent for the purpose of making purchases, cash advances or balance transfers under this Agreement and each use of your Account shall be an extension of credit to all. Notice to one of you shall constitute notice to all. Any joint cardholder may remove him/herself from responsibility for future purchases at any time by notifying us in writing. However, removal from the Account does not release you from any liability already incurred.

CONVENIENCE CHECKS: We may issue checks at our discretion that may be used for any lawful purpose other than making a payment for credit to your Account. By signing such checks, you authorize us to pay the item for the amount indicated and post such amount as a cash advance to your Account. We do not have to pay any item that would cause the outstanding balance in your Account to exceed your credit limit. Charges that apply in connection with the use of convenience checks are as follows: Copy of Paid Check $5; Stop Payment on Check $15. Fees will be assessed at the time they are incurred. In addition to periodic interest charges, use of convenience checks is subject to an additional fee which is disclosed under the “Cash Advance/Convenience Check Fee” section of this Agreement. There is no grace period for convenience checks.

BALANCE TRANSFERS: Subject to your available credit, you will be able to transfer the balances of non-First Security Bank credit card accounts to your Account. If you request a balance transfer to be made, you should not rely on a balance transfer to be made by any particular date. Although most balance transfers will be made sooner, it could take up to four weeks before payment to your other account is made. Accordingly, you should continue to make all required payments on your other accounts until you confirm that the balance transfer has been made. Balance transfers may not exceed your available credit. Balance transfers will be processed from the lowest to the highest dollar amount. If a balance transfer coupon is more than your available credit limit, we will automatically lower the balance transfer amount to your available credit and complete the transfer. We will not close your other accounts, even if you transfer the entire balance. If you want to close your other accounts, you should contact the issuer directly. Transfer of a balance that contains disputed purchases or other charges may cause you to lose any dispute rights you may have with regard to those purchases or other charges. In addition to periodic interest charges, balance transfers are subject to an additional fee which is disclosed under the “Balance Transfer Fee” section of this Agreement. There is no grace period for balance transfers.

OTHERS USING YOUR ACCOUNT: If you allow anyone else to use your Card, you will be liable for all credit extended to such persons. You promise to pay for all purchases, balance transfers, and cash advances made by anyone whom you authorize to use your Card, whether or not you notify us that he or she will be using it. If someone else is authorized to use your Card and you want to end that person’s privilege, you must notify us in writing, and if he or she has a Card, you must return the Card with your written notice for it to be effective.

CREDIT LIMITS: You promise that payments we make for your Account resulting from use of the Card will at no time cause the outstanding balance of your Account to exceed your credit limit as established by us or as adjusted from time to time at our discretion.

PROMISE TO PAY: You promise to pay us in U.S. dollars for (a) all purchases, cash advances, and balance transfers made by you or anyone whom you authorize to use the Card or Account; (b) interest charges and other charges or fees; (c) collection costs and attorney's fees as permitted by applicable law, and any costs incurred in the recovery of the Card; and (d) credit in excess of your credit limit that we may extend to you. At the end of each monthly billing cycle for which you have a balance on your Account, you will be furnished with a periodic statement showing (i) the "Previous Balance" (the outstanding balance in the Account at the beginning of the billing cycle), (ii) the amount of all cash advances, purchases, balance transfers, Late Payment Fees, Returned Payment Fees, Annual Fees, interest charges, and other charges or fees posted to your Account during the billing cycle, (iii) the amount of all payments and credits posted to your Account during the billing cycle, and (iv) the "New Balance" which is the sum of (i) and (ii) minus (iii).

You agree to pay on or before the "Payment Due Date" shown on the monthly periodic statement the entire New Balance or a Minimum Payment equal to an amount which is at least 1% of the New Balance or $25, whichever is greater, plus any unpaid fees and interest charges plus any amount in excess of the credit limit established by us and any past due minimum payments. If the New Balance is $25.00 or less, you agree to pay it in full. You may make extra payments in advance of the due date without a penalty, and you may repay any funds advanced, credit extended, or amount outstanding at any time without a penalty for early payment. Regardless of the amount of any extra payment during a given month, a monthly payment will be required the following month if a balance remains in your Account.

COST OF CREDIT: You will pay an interest charge for all advances made against your Account. The interest charge may include, as applicable, a minimum interest charge, a periodic interest charge on your Account balances, and certain transaction-based fees. Periodic interest charge for cash advances and balance transfers begin to accrue on the date of the advance and there is no grace period. New purchases will qualify for a grace period and will not incur periodic interest charges until the start of the next billing cycle if the Previous Balance on your statement (i) is zero, (ii) is a credit balance, or (iii) was paid in full by the Payment Due Date on your immediately preceding monthly statement. For new purchases that qualify for a grace period, you will pay no periodic interest charges on those new purchases if you pay the New Balance in full by the Payment Due Date shown on the billing statement on which those new purchases first appear. For new purchases that do not qualify for a grace period, interest charges will begin to accrue on the date of the advance. Prior to the expiration of any grace period, if you do not pay the New Balance in full, but pay a portion of the New Balance by the Payment Due Date for that monthly statement, you will pay no periodic interest charges on the purchases portion of the New Balance paid, but you will pay periodic interest charges on the purchases portion of the New Balance that remains unpaid. The Payment Due Date will be no less than 21 days after we have sent you your current monthly statement.

Until the first day of the billing cycle that includes the 6-month anniversary date of the opening of your Account, you will pay an interest charge for purchases and balance transfers made at the Introductory Rate daily periodic rate of 0.0000%, which has a corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 0.0000%. Thereafter, and for cash advance transactions at all times, including during the Introductory Rate period, you will pay an interest charge for all advances at a periodic rate which is based on an Index (the "Index") which is the U.S. Prime Rate published in the "Money Rates" section of The Wall Street Journal on the last business day of the month. The Index is subject to change monthly on the first day of each month. An increase or decrease in the Index will cause a corresponding increase or decrease in the variable rate on the first day of your billing cycle that ends on or after the date of the change. The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE for any given billing cycle will be the Index plus 4.99% - 14.99%. As of March 2018, the Standard Rate daily periodic rate for your Account is 9.74% - 19.74%, depending upon your credit worthiness, and the corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE is 9.74% - 19.74%, depending upon your credit worthiness. An increase in the Index will result in an increase in the periodic rate which, in turn, will result in higher interest charges and higher minimum payments.

If at any time your Account is 90 days or more past due, the rate will increase to a Penalty APR daily periodic rate of 24.74%, which has a corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 24.74%. The Penalty APR may be adjusted to the current Standard Rate after payment have been made as required for six consecutive months.

HOW WE CALCULATE YOUR BALANCE AND INTEREST CHARGE ON BALANCES: We figure the periodic interest charge on your Account by applying the applicable daily periodic rate to the Average Daily Balance of your Account for each feature category, including certain current transactions. Feature categories include purchases, balance transfers, cash advances and promotional balances. These calculations may combine different feature categories with the same Daily Periodic Rates. The Average Daily Balance for each feature category is arrived at by taking the beginning balance of such feature category each day and adding any new transactions to the balance, except we will not include new purchases if you have paid in full the New Balance on your previous statement by the Payment Due Date or if the New Balance on your previous statement was zero or less. We then subtract any payments or credits and unpaid interest charges and finance charges allocated to the feature category balance for the day. This gives us the daily balance for such feature category. The daily balances for such feature category are then added together and divided by the number of days in the billing cycle. The result is the Average Daily Balance for such feature category. The periodic interest charge for each feature category is determined by multiplying the Average Daily Balance by the number of days in the billing cycle and applying the applicable Daily Periodic Rate.

CREDITING OF PAYMENTS: We do not charge for payments made by standard mail service or other standard payment methods that we accept. If we charge a fee for any expedited payment service we offer, that fee will be disclosed to you at the time you request the service. All payments made on your Account at the address designated for payment on the monthly periodic statement or by way of any other approved payment methods generally will be credited to your Account on the date of receipt. If the date of receipt for a mailed payment is not a business day, the payment may not be credited until the first business day following receipt. Payments received in person by one of our branch employees before the close of business will receive same-day credit. If payment is made at any location other than the address designated on the periodic statement or any other standard payment method we accept, credit for such payment may be delayed up to five days.

All payments on your Account will be applied first to collection costs, then to any interest charge and other fees due, and then to the unpaid principal balance. If your payments exceed the Total Payment Due shown on your current monthly statement, we generally will apply the excess amount first to the balances subject to the highest interest rate. This will result in balances with higher ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES being paid before any other existing balances. Interest paid or agreed to be paid shall not exceed the maximum amount permissible under applicable law, and in any contingency whatsoever, if we shall receive anything of value deemed interest under applicable law which would exceed the maximum amount of interest permissible under applicable law, the excessive interest shall be applied to the reduction of the unpaid principal amount or refunded to you.

MINIMUM INTEREST CHARGE: There is a minimum interest charge of $2.00 for any billing cycle in which a periodic interest charge is due.

CASH ADVANCE/CONVENIENCE CHECK FEE: If you take a cash advance or use a convenience check provided by the Bank, there will be a Cash Advance/Convenience Check Fee. The Cash Advance/Convenience Check Fee is equal to 5% of the cash advance, but not less than $10.

BALANCE TRANSFER FEE: For balance transfers, there is a Balance Transfer Fee. The Balance Transfer Fee is equal to 5% of the balance transfer but not less than $10.

LATE PAYMENT FEE: We will add a Late Payment Fee to your Account balance for each billing period you fail to pay the Current Minimum Amount Due plus any Past Due Amount within 10 days of the due date shown on your current statement. The fee will be assessed as follows: we may charge a fee equal to the lesser of the amount of your Minimum Payment Due or $25, except the amount of any subsequent Late Payment Fee assessed during the next 6 billing cycles after a Late Payment Fee is assessed will be equal to the lesser of the amount of your Minimum Payment Due or $29.

RETURNED PAYMENT FEE: We will charge you a Returned Payment Fee each time you make a payment that is returned unpaid for any reason. We will charge you this fee the first time any payment is returned unpaid, even if it is paid upon resubmission. The fee will be assessed as follows: the first time your payment is returned, a Returned Payment Fee equal to the lesser of the amount of your Minimum Payment Due or $25 will be assessed; if another payment is returned during the next six billing cycles, a Returned Payment Fee equal to the lesser of the amount of your Minimum Payment Due or $29 will be assessed.

Your Billing Rights: Keep this Document for Future Use

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What to Do if You Find a Mistake on Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to our designee at:

First Security Bank
c/o Credit Card Center
P.O. Box 815909
Dallas, TX 75381-5909

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your statement, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe your statement is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your statement is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your statement. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

Your Rights if You are Dissatisfied with Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase. To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

First Security Bank
c/o Credit Card Center
P.O. Box 815909
Dallas, TX 75381-5909

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.
